Gentlemen:

Inclosed are the approved revised plans dated 11 November 1981 which supersede plans authorized by the Secretary of the Army on 19 August 1981.

The original plans were to dredge, construct wharf and install three 7-pile dolphins in the Duwamish River at Seattle, Washington. The revision consists of changing the location of the three 7-pile dolphins and adding eight single pile mooring piles in the area of the proposed wharf prior to wharf construction. The waterward encroachment of the proposed dolphins increases by 6 feet.

The conditions to which the work was made subject remain in full force and effect.
